RABBI'S COLUMN

POP QUIZ!

So, here it is, the middle of Winter and I am going to give you a quiz ... not the most comforting sounding message from your Rabbi. But hold your anxiety for a moment. The quiz is one where you grade your answers! In and of itself, that should make you happy, right?!

With the start of the month of Adar just around the corner (and our being commanded to be happy upon its arrival), I think it's time to take this mid-Winter "Happiness Quiz:"

1. Do you think more about what you're not doing than what you are doing?
2. Do you miss something you used to love doing but don't know why you've stopped?
3. Who else do you include in your life ... all of your life?
4. When do you set aside time for NOT doing/completing the daily tasks on your plate?
5. How do you make yourself happy?

So much of your life, of all our lives, is programmed – formally and informally. Most of us would agree that, whether working or retired or some combination thereof, it is hard to find the time to find the time for doing nothing!

So, I am wondering if you are spending enough time on one of the most central tasks for us as Jews: living well/with meaning. The wisdom passed down to us from our ancestors teaches us that this is how we may find true happiness, not just fleeting moments of vain fulfillment. We must find, create, or cultivate purpose – not necessarily deeply meaningful purpose, but purpose nonetheless.

In the end, it may be a trite axiom, but it is true as true can be: We all need to feel needed, to feel of use to ourselves and to the world around us. So, when you're thinking about how you're going to be happy in an uncertain world, think about how you can make your world more certain. When you're thinking about what you don't have, focus yourself on creating what you want. When you feel that your life is out of your control, break up what is before you and assess your priorities. Essentially, we all need to be aware of what makes our lives meaningful and brings us happiness.

And that's my big message – that's what the coming of the month of Adar (and soon after its arrival, Purim) can bring for us ... a simple message of taking a "happiness inventory."

So, the question is, then, what happiness are you storing up this Winter?!

May you and all of yours find the happiness and meaning you seek in life, and may you be blessed to share that happiness with each other, with your fellow congregants, and with the broader community. And may the whole world be enriched, enlightened, and enlivened by your example.

Rabbi Gerald R. Fox

Presidents' Column

Life goes on ... this was a bad Fall for Temple Beth Shalom. We lost three of our long time, very active, very supportive members ... Sylvia Leibowitz, Pearl Kaye and Dr. Joseph Chaikin. You will be missed. Our condolences to all their families.

On a happier note ... Our intimate Chanukah Party was a success thanks to Marsha & Len Goldenberg and Lillian and Ronald Shender. Great food!

A good time was had by all. Again, we could have used more people in attendance.

While I am at it, I would like to thank the Goldenbergs for our Gold Rush Project. Marsha and Len not only contributed their time but also their profit to the synagogue. It was successful and would have been even more so if more people had participated. Thanks again, guys.

With so many of our members heading south and west, you would think we would go into sleep mode for the winter. This is not the case. We're here! Services every Friday night. ... 2nd Saturday of the month for Shabbat

Saturday service ... Make an effort to attend. We need every warm body!

Our trip to Israel is progressing nicely. We have a pretty terrific itinerary planned. A flyer will be going out as soon as things are finalized. If you are interested in going along, call the office and get on the list. May 25, 2010 through June 8, 2010. JOIN US! This trip is open to the public. You do not have to be a member to come along. Bring your friends and family.

Let me be the first to wish you and yours a happy and healthy New Year!

Lill Shender
President

IN FOND MEMORY

Temple Beth Shalom is saddened by the recent loss of our very own, Dr. Joseph Chaikin, husband of Betty on December 3, 2009 after a very sudden illness.

Dr. Joe was one of the original founders and a loyal supporter of the synagogue for many, many years. He was well loved and admired by his family, his patients, his community and his Temple.

We will miss you Joe!

2010 Dues

Good news: There will be no increase in dues for the 2010-2011 fiscal year!

Important news: We will be transitioning from a calendar year to a fiscal year.

Who: All members

When: Starting June 2010

What: For financial purposes, the year will run from July 1 - June 30

Why: To bring us in line with federal and state tax reporting, audit requirements, contract negotiations and current book-keeping protocols

How: In order to accomplish this transition, invoices have been sent (please return with your check by January 31, 2010) for a collection of a 6-month obligation representing January-June, 2010. In June, another invoice will be sent representing the annual 12-month obligation. After that, there will be only one invoice a year (June).

Congratulations

Person of the Month

KAREN SEDERHOLM was born in New York in 1955 and also lived in North Carolina and Boston before moving to Philadelphia in 1976. She graduated from Haverford College in 1982 with a major in Fine Arts.

Karen developed and taught an interdisciplinary art program for senior centers in Philadelphia and taught pre-school while raising her two children, Micah and Natalie.

She moved to Brigantine in 1993 and went to work for Harrah's in Aug 1994 and Trump Entertainment in March 2004. Her current title is HR Talent and Development Specialist.

Karen joined Temple Beth Shalom in 1997 after her mother passed away from lung cancer and she was looking for a place to say Kaddish every week.

"Everyone was so warm and welcoming and I quickly became a part of the synagogue family. I loved helping out in the kitchen on Friday nights, holidays and fundraising activities. I also enjoyed co-teaching Sunday School with Afton Koontz (we had 6 students! My daughter, her twin daughters, and 3 of Jackie and Fred Fabel's grandchildren.) After Jerry Erman passed away (2001) I had the opportunity to put my artistic training to use when asked to design the stained glass window on the Brigantine Ave. side of the synagogue. In the summer of 2002 I moved to Smithville, but still try to do what I can to help at Temple Beth Shalom."
