MAY I HAVE YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE!

Are you celebrating a special day, honoring someone or remembering a loved one?

A good way to do this is to sponsor an Oneg Shabbat on a Friday night or a Saturday Kiddush Luncheon. It will make you feel good and will help your synagogue carry on this time honored tradition.

For only $25 for a Friday night or $100 for a Saturday luncheon, this has got to be the biggest bargain on the planet! Call Diane at 266-0403 and make your intentions known.

RABBI'S COLUMN

Counting Ourselves In

For those of us who are able to remember as children or as parents (or even as grandparents) the intersection of children's programming and Public Television, the traversing of the distance between Pesach and Shavuot is best described by a small black and white muppet laughing with the joy of learning. "One . . . ah, ah, ah; two . . . ah, ah, ah; three . . . ah, ah, ah!" The muppet known as "The Count" – a humorous overt homage to Count Dracula – has taught generations of children the importance of being able to count and the powerful knowledge of quantifiable things.

In an even more powerful way, we are taught the same lesson as adults when we count the Omer from the second night of Pesach until the day before Shavuot. By saying the blessing and by counting the intervening days between one holiday and another, we share in the experience of our ancestors. On Pesach, we commemorate our ancestors' freedom and by doing so we honor our freedom. On Shavuot, however, we give value to that freedom by affirming our acceptance of our holy Torah, traditionally known as the day that our ancestors stood at Sinai to receive the same Jewish Law that guides our lives today.

So, what does it mean for us to count the days? We count not only to remind ourselves that each day matters not only in and of itself as another day that we are alive and free, but that our lives matter more, that we can raise the meaning of our daily human experience to something that connects us to the Divine in the Universe. All life is precious, but our tradition, especially the counting of the Omer, teaches us that our lives hold greater meaning when we live in deliberate (some might say, "holy") ways.

Great lessons can be learned from even a bundle of cloth and felt glued together and given a voice – what we do to mark our time on this earth is what determines whether we "count." It is in the climbing of this mountain of time – the 49 days of the Omer – that allows us to be in the right frame of mind to receive the Torah as OUR Torah and to see the world from a new perspective.

It is my wish for each of you that you be blessed to see the world differently this Shavuot and that your counting brings you a new appreciation of our beloved Jewish traditions.

See you on the mountain-top – Hag Sameach!

Rabbi Gerald R. Fox

Presidents' Column

Looks like summer is finally going to arrive after a cold, wet (very wet) Spring. We are looking forward to everyone returning to the Island.

We have planned some exciting things for June starting with the Renewal and Rededication BBQ on June 8 and all we need to make things happen is YOU.

Speaking of YOU, you will be receiving in the mail a congregational survey. It is very important that you fill it out and return the survey to the office asap. This survey will enable us to plan your Temple experience to be more meaningful and enjoyable so that you will want to participate more often.

I look forward to seeing you and renewing our relationship.

Come to Services, to our BBQ, to our lecture series (#3) and our bazaar. JUST COME!

“Rabbi Fox Makes a Showing!”

Our own Rabbi Fox was asked by the South Jersey Board of Rabbis and Cantors to fulfill the important role of offering the closing Benediction at the Atlantic and Cape May Counties Jewish Community Celebration of the 60th Anniversary of Israel's Founding, held on Sunday, May 18th. Rabbi Fox's words raised the spirits of the hundreds of celebration participants, despite the cold and rain (which seemed to let up just in time for Rabbi Fox's words). With a hearty response to Rabbi Fox's call for support for Israel, the crowd was clearly moved by his words and enthusiasm. A "shout out" goes to Michael and Cheryl Guterman and their grandchild for keeping Rabbi Fox and his wife, Sarah, company during the parade and ceremonies at the ball field on Jerome Avenue."

Brigantine's 11th Annual Holocaust Memorial Program

June 18 & 19 • 7 p.m.
Brigantine Library

“JANKA” – This play, which has been performed throughout the United States and the United Kingdom, is the story of Janka Festinger, a Holocaust survivor, who near the end of her life, struggled to relate her experiences in the concentration camps to her son. Son and playwright, Oscar Speace, states that her story “demonstrates the humanity we all share.” Janice Noga, Janka’s daughter-in-law, brings her back to life in a very moving performance.

Because of the play’s popularity, there will be two performances on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, June 18 and 19 at 7 p.m. at the Brigantine Library. Admission is free, but due to limited seating, reservations are absolutely required. CALL THE LIBRARY TO RESERVE (609) 266-0110.

A dessert buffet will follow each performance.

The Mitzvah of Maot Hittin

On behalf of all of those Jews in need of assistance to observe Pesach, as well as those non-Jews who need help feeding themselves, I want to thank the following people who participated in the Mitzvah of Maot Hittin (donating to others during the Passover season). We were able to raise almost twice the amount raised last year, which says a lot about this community and the generosity of its members.
