RABBI'S COLUMN

The Making of A Spiritual Community

The world has been moving at a fast pace lately. From changes in the North Korean nuclear issue to the roller coaster of national politics to the frenetic changes in Israel and among its neighbors, it is hard to keep up. We search for meanings, sometimes where there are none, in the hopes of feeling more secure.

And yet, Summer has arrived and we should be happy, right? After all, Brigantine is the Summer playground par excellence – Sun, sea, sand, and everything that goes with them! So, why do I feel a little sad, a little anxious? Perhaps it is the juxtaposition of the turmoil presently taking place in the Palestinian territories and our observance in the Jewish calendar of the destruction of Jerusalem and the Holy Temple there coupled with the 40th anniversary of the Six-Day War.

Together, these events together remind us that the Jewish people are more vulnerable than we'd like to think. It's true, we have done relatively well for ourselves in this country and in many around the world, but the worry of a safe future lingers. No matter how distant we are from Israel, we wonder what will be for our brethren there as the world around them is in full flux. Out of the corner of our eye we watch history unfold and we feel like we cannot help.

On the contrary, though we may feel drawn to give into this sadness or anxiety, we should take the period between the 17th of Tammuz (the anniversary of the breaching of the walls of Jerusalem by the Romans) and the 9th of Av (the anniversary of the destruction of the Holy Temple itself) as a time to reflect upon how blessed we are – we are descended from the remnants who survived the butchering of between 600,000 and 1.2 million Jews in this three week period; we are living in a time when Jews are not only tolerated in most of the world, but are welcomed; and we are living all around the world and enriching it with our Jewish ethics, religion, and culture. We are living. This may not erase our concerns, but if we allow ourselves to see the forest for the trees, we just might be inspired to renew and reconnect ourselves to our heritage and to our community.

“Spirituality” was, for a time, an over-used and completely misunderstood word. Part of what it means to live a spiritual life is to be aware of the world around you, to be in sync with life, and to elevate one's purpose in life to higher ideals and practices. While we take stock on our internal compass during Rosh Hashannah and Yom Kippur, perhaps Tisha B' Av, and the 17th of Tammuz before it, are when we look at where we are as a people. The destruction of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem forever changed Judaism. The Priesthood declined without the Temple and the Rabbis ascended and the enrichment of Jewish communal and religious life has been the responsibility of the average Jew ever since.

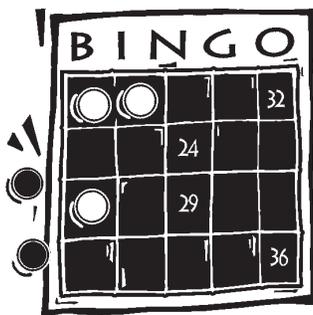

Therefore, let's take this time – as we putt-putt around in our boats (or on our neighbors!), take walks on the beach, and enjoy Summer backyard barbecue parties – to take account of where we are as a people and as a community. Where would you like to see us go as we soon move into the coming year? What values do you wish us to reflect? What kind of spiritual nourishment are you seeking and how will we elevate further the spiritual and communal life of Jewish Brigantine? Only you can answer these questions. I look forward to being your partner as you explore them and I would love to hear your thoughts on how you will help to elevate Temple Beth Shalom and the Jewish people.

May we all know the blessing of having our holy Temple, our Temple Beth Shalom, serve as a meeting place where we nourish our souls and raise our spirits.

Rabbi Gerald R. Fox

Well We did it (almost)!!!!!!!

We now have a working slate for 2007-2008. Please refer to the proposed slate article that lists those positions that were filled and those that are still open.

I want to express my thanks to all the people who accepted their positions and to welcome (and re-welcome) them aboard. I know that we will do good things in the coming year. For those of you still sitting on the fence, hop down and join us! We must keep our Jewish identity alive and in good health on our island.

I would like to suggest a "Bring a Buddy" to shul starting on Friday, July 6 and then to attend as many Friday night services as you can throughout the year.

I look forward to seeing you then.

Lill Shender

It is said that when a door closes often times later a window opens.

On the June Shabbat morning two weeks ago, we said goodbye to Idie Benjamin (in absentia) and also to Wendy Martelli.

And then, contrary to speculation, Gene Blum looking hale, hearty and spiffy walked down the aisle. He looked great, sounded good, was blessed by the Rabbi and proceeded to do himself more than justice at the Kiddush lunch.

Not only was it good to see Gene and Judy in attendance, it made up for part of the loss. It was just like "old times".

Hopefully, one day soon, Idie and Wendy will come back down the aisle.

Congratulations to Gloria Jacoby for another wonderful program on the Holocaust!

"Mazel Tov" Aliza on becoming a bat mitzvah. I know that everyone at Temple Beth Shalom is very proud of you. I am Sorry I could not celebrate your special day with you and your family but I thought of you as my student Peter chanted Torah at my own shul that very Shabbat morning. May Temple Beth Shalom be a second Jewish home for you and your family.

Fondly, Rabbi Rosalind

The August Board meeting is a general meeting in which all are invited to come and vote!!! It is at 10 AM Aug. 12.

As you can see we still need more manpower. If you can't chair please volunteer (not a curse word) to serve on one of the committees.

WHAT AN EVENING IT WAS!!!!

On June 21, the entire Brigantine Community commemorated the 10th Anniversary of our Holocaust Memorial Monument. Everyone was there from the Mayor, the City Council, our shul, the community – just everyone who was anybody came to listen to the panel of Holocaust Survivors. It was very moving. Jim Figolli was recognized as the founder and driving force behind the Monument. Our own Gloria Jacoby was awarded a Proclamation from the City by the Mayor and a beautiful engraved crystal vase (with flowers of course) from the Library for her outstanding work through the years on this project. Gloria baked and baked and baked. With the help of Nancy Zucker, a fabulous dessert buffet was served.

LET'S GET BUSY!!!

Please call us now and sign up for as much time as you can give us. We need workers for the night before to set up the tables (10 should do it). It will only take about 2 hours. For the day of the Bazaar we must have at least 15 to 20 people to man the tables and help the customers. If you can't stay all day, at least give us a couple hours. Consider this a day of fun and pro activity.

We will be accepting your goodies now. We need kitchen items, books, linens, wall hangings and pictures, toys, jewelry, tools (not rusted), lamps, vases, household goods, etc. All in good condition of course. If you are redecorating your house, room or if you are planning to move, we can use what you cannot use.

You can do better donating your items to us, as we will give you a letter for your records so that you can claim a tax deduction. Sure is easier than having a garage sale!

Don't forget the barbeque! As always great food (not exactly diet). Come out and participate! Again we'll need your help.

Call Edith at 266-2018 or the Temple office in the mornings 10 a.m.-12 noon to make arrangements to drop off and volunteer.

Edith Krimstock Chairman
